Marzulla Law, LLC Highlights
Federal Takings Litigation in New Monthly Newsletter

WASHINGTON, DC – Marzulla Law, LLC—one of the nation’s leading law firms in helping property owners get paid just compensation when the federal government takes their commercial property through inverse condemnation—proudly issued this week the second edition of its monthly newsletter. The publication is designed to keep property owners and the legal community on top of the latest news in federal takings litigation, particularly in the United States Court of Federal Claims.

In this latest installment, a significant reversal by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit—and subsequent trial—in the case of Casitas Municipal Water District v. United States, No. 05-168L, took center stage. In the March inaugural edition, a Federal Circuit decision by the Court of Federal Claims in a $100 million physical taking suit, Klamath Irrigation District v. United States, No. 01-591L, was profiled.

The monthly newsletter is a free, indispensable resource—featuring the latest news in federal takings litigation, highlights of industry experts, and a calendar of upcoming events. And for something lighthearted, see our regular spotlight on the dedicated employees that comprise Marzulla Law. In the April edition, read about Jared Pliner, our legal assistant with a great booming voice.
